Presented by the Florida Quality Parenting Initiative

The Quality Parenting Initiative invites you to join us for a Live Web Event:

“It Only Makes Cents: Our Children, Their Financial Future”

Date: Wednesday, April 18, 2018
3:00 – 4:00 PM (EDT) / 2:00 – 3:00 PM (CDT) / 12:00 – 1:00 PM (PDT)

Presented by: Jessica Lorenzi and Iris Collier, Communications Specialists – Department of Financial Services

Training Description: As parents, guardians, support providers, family and friends, it is our responsibility to introduce smart money management to our children to help prepare them for major financial decisions ahead. Imagine not knowing how to balance your checkbook or how much is best to pay on your credit card bill. Now, think about those financial lessons you learned the hard way. If we can help our children avoid such money mistakes, why wouldn't we, especially when resources are so easily accessible?

As we observe Financial Literacy Month and Teach Children to Save Day on April 20th, it is an opportune time to start discussing finances with the children in your life.

Presenters from the Department of Financial Services will share information on its financial literacy course and app for teens and young adults, Finance Your Future. They will also teach parents how to assist their children in learning about finances. A Q&A session will follow the presentation.

AUDIO will be provided over your Computer.
