“ICPC 101 for Caregivers”

Friday, February 15, 2019

1:30 – 3:00 PM (EST) / 12:30 – 2:00 PM (CST)/ 10:30 – 12:00 (PST)

Presented by: Christina Oliver Libre, Deputy Compact Administrator – ICPC, California Department of Social Services and Courtney Lee, ICPC and ICAMA Compact Administrator, Florida Department of Children and Families

Training Description: The Interstate Compact for Placement of Children (ICPC) is a challenge for many who navigate the child welfare system, including caregivers. This webcast is designed to help caregivers, both current caregivers and prospective caregivers, have a better understanding of the ICPC, and to answer many common questions caregivers have about the ICPC.-- What does ICPC mean? What does it actually do? How does the process work? How do you best help the process be most efficient?—Please join our national experts as we explore the basics of ICPC for caregivers and learn how to avoid the most common pitfalls and problems experienced by caregivers when navigating the ICPC.

If you have any general questions you would like to ask, you can send your questions to javerett@qpiylc.org. Please note that specific questions related to a particular situation will not be appropriate for this forum, and only general questions will be answered during the web event.
