This free certificate webinar one of the "Third Friday" community training events hosted by BBCAHT and STAC to inform and engage the North Florida community and beyond. We are happy to extend this invitation to friends and colleagues - please join us!

No one agency, profession, system, or single community can do all that is needed to end human trafficking – everyone has a role. And, because sex and labor trafficking are so hidden and more common than people understand, it is imperative that we all act. This program will feature a wide-ranging discussion of how to build, fortify, and sustain a community that opposes human trafficking, consistently builds and sustains systems that support adult and minor human trafficking survivors, and actively collaborates to prevent sex and labor trafficking.

Presenters: Lorie Ann Asifor-Tuoyo, Advocate/Survivor and STAC Board Member; Justin Barfield, Development Director, CCYS; Sheriff Walt McNeil, Leon County Sheriff's Office; David Oliver, Deputy Dir. Florida, International Rescue Committee; Heidi Otway, Pres. of SalterMitchell PR and former Chair Greater Tallahassee Chamber of Commerce; Nick Quinton, Ph.D., Trinity United Methodist Church.

Sponsors: STAC in affiliation with Big Bend Coalition Against Human Trafficking and the International Rescue Committee.

Contact for questions: STAC at stac@surviveandthriveadvocacy.org or 850-597-2080
